The new Mainstay Suites in Dover, Delaware was Kent County's first hotel to be recognized for its green practices on June 26 by the Delaware Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control (DNREC).

DNREC and the Delaware Hotel Lodging Association created the green hotels initiative called "Delaware Green Lodging," making Delaware among the first 12 states in the nation to start such a program.
